

GENUINE THERMOS® BRAND SHAKER BOTTLE MIXES UP A STORM WHILE ON THE GO

High-performance integrated mixer blends protein shakes without the mess

SCHAUMBURG, Ill. (August 3, 2016) — Protein shakes provide a satisfying and delicious way to stay nourished and energized at the gym, office or anywhere while on the go, but mixing the ingredients can be a messy endeavor. Now, it's easy to shake up your routine and enjoy freshly mixed protein shakes anywhere, with the Genuine Thermos Brand Shaker Bottle.

Designed with the active and nutrition-focused individual in mind, the 24-ounce Shaker Bottle features an integrated and removable stationary mixer that helps evenly blend the protein beverage ingredients. Capacity markings along the side of the bottle assist with measuring ingredients and monitoring intake. The locking, hygienic covered lid flips open with the touch of a button and has an open spout for high flow and easy drinking. The lid also has an integrated flip-up carrying loop for convenient portability.

Designed for high performance and reliability

"Extensive research, testing, and analysis went into the creation of our Shaker Bottle to ensure optimal performance and the best possible consumer experience," says Julie Ryan, senior vice president of sales and marketing, Thermos L.L.C. "We are proud to offer a shaker bottle that allows people to effortlessly include nutritious protein shakes in their daily routines."

Constructed of BPA-free impact-resistant Eastman Tritan™ copolyester, the Genuine Thermos Brand Shaker Bottle is easy to clean and dishwasher safe. It retails at $14.99 and is available for purchase at Target and Amazon.
